Life in the Civilian Conservation Corps

Saturday, August 26, 2006 - 1:00 PM

Join Park Interpreter Betsey Willis, staff from the Erving State Forest, state-wide interpretive staff, and staff from the District 9 Forest Fire Crew for a fun and interactive program about Life in the Civilian Conservation Corps. Visitors will tour the site of the original 1930's CCC camp and try out some of the tools used after a fun game of CCC Jeopardy. View informational displays, artifacts, and photographs of various local CCC camps. This program is appropriate for any audience.

Follow Route 2 in Erving to its intersection with Route 2A and follow the CCC signs up the dirt road. This program is FREE. For more information contact Betsey at (978) 544-7745.
